FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF BEIRUT – MEDITERRANEO

FACULTY POSITION

MATHEMATICS

The Faculty of Arts and Sciences at the American University of Beirut – Mediterraneo (AUB Mediterraneo) invites applications for faculty position in mathematics. AUB Mediterraneo is a newly established university in Pafos (Cyprus) and a twin campus of the American University of Beirut (AUB) in Lebanon, one of the oldest and most prestigious universities in the Middle East. Accredited in both Cyprus and the United States of America, AUB Mediterraneo is based on the American liberal arts model and offers an individualized, student-centered education within the framework of a European research university. The university welcomed its first cohort of students in fall 2023.

The person hired for this position is expected to teach predominantly courses for non-math majors within AUB Mediterraneo's General Education program. Applicants should hold a PhD in mathematics or applied mathematics or statistics and should be able to demonstrate excellence in teaching in addition to a strong commitment to research and service. Candidates with teaching experience, post-doctoral appointments, and a record of grant funding as well as scholarly publications are particularly encouraged to apply. Successful candidates are also expected to contribute to the development of new courses for the General Education program at AUB Mediterraneo. The typical teaching load is six courses a year. The language of instruction is English. Applicants interested in visiting positions will also be considered.

Application materials should include a letter of interest, a CV, and statements on research, teaching, and service and should be sent by email to recruitment@aubmed.ac.cy. Applicants should also arrange for three letters of reference to be emailed separately. Consideration of received applications will begin on December 15, 2023, and will continue until positions are filled. The expected start date is August 2024. Salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications.
